my pathway to studying and working in BIOSECURITY

I could be an Entomologist 1 could be a Botanist

> ו בסטום be ב Biosecurity Policy Officer

I could be a Senior Biosecurity Officer with an industry group

Bachelor Degree

Bachelor of Biosecurity Science

Bachelor of Environmental Management

Certificate 1 & 2

Certificate 1 & 2 Conservation

Certificate 1 & 2 Spoken and

& Land Management

Biosecurity Skill Set 2

Written English

Bachelor of Science

Diploma

Diploma of Public Safety (Biosecurity Response Management)

Diploma in Conservation and Land Management

Diploma in Pest Management

I could be an Emergency Disease Manager

I could be a Animal Health Worker For the shire council

Certificate 4

Certificate 4 in Tropical Biosecurity

Certificate 4 in Public Safety (Biosecurity Response Leadership)

Certificate 4 in Conservation and Land Management

Biosecurity Skill Set 4

I could be a
Biosecurity Team Leader
For the government

I could be a Ranger Coordinator

I could be a Senior Ranger

Certificate 3

Certificate 3 in Public Safety (Biosecurity Response Operations)

Certificate 3 in Conservation and Land

Certificate 3 in Pest Management

Certificate 3 in Indigenous
Land Management

Biosecurity Skill Set 3

ו בסטוב be ב Biosecurity officer

1 could be a Land or Sea Ranger

1 could be a
Feral Animal Control Officer

I could be a Community Liaison Officer for the government

1 could be a Junior Ranger

FAMILY CULTURE COMMUNITY

NAILSMA NORTH AUSTRALIAN INDIGENOUS LAND AND SEA MANAGEMENT ALLIANCE

Education to Employment Pathways

Find out more information

Talk to the Ranger Coordinator or Manager

Talk to a teacher or career advisor at your school

Ask at the local Council office in your community

Contact your local Registered Training Organisation (RTO)

www.nailsma.org.au

Working with communities to identify opportunities for remote Indigenous students and adult learners to participate in higher education in land and sea management.